Winter Graphic Design Internship

Information

We are looking for qualified undergraduates and recent graduates to fill a part-time winter internship role from December 2017 to March 2018. Ideally, you're a designer who has the experience and skills that match our multi-disciplinary practice and understand both print and web. You'll be working directly with our designers on various projects such as branding, exhibition design, and interaction/ux design. You do not need to be a fully fledged developer but familiarity and experience in front-end development are highly welcomed.

We ask that interns are able to work a minimum of 20 hours per week and we are flexible with their schedule. Selections for this position will be made on the basis of the applicant's enthusiasm about the kinds of projects we are currently engaged in, as well as their design experience and portfolio, interest in art, activism, architecture, design and public spaces.

Requirements

- Must have strong skills in Adobe Creative Suite (Illustrator/InDesign/Photoshop)
- Pursuing (or completed) a degree in Graphic Design (BA, BFA, MFA)
- Experience working on print and print-production projects
- Has the ability to multi-task, set typography and be relatively self-directed
- Must have either a US Passport or work visa in place to apply

Even Better

- Projects that demonstrate strong interaction design skills as well as the ability to execute the user experience for responsive websites and native mobile applications
- Experience designing in Sketch and interactive prototyping software
- Front-end development experience (HTML, CSS, JavaScript)

Application Details

1. Resume (PDF)
2. Portfolio link + any other relevant links to your work (or a link to a PDF under 10mb)
3. Write 'Winter Design Internship Application' in the subject of your email.
4. Your time-line. Would you be able to start in December 2017 or early January 2018?

Send to: jobs@partnerandpartners.com

START DATE

December 2017
/ January 2018

LOCATION

150 West 28th St, #800
New York, NY

DURATION

Part-time

COMPENSATION

Interns will receive a stipend of $15 an hour and unlimited monthly MetroCards for the duration of the internship. P&P will also support internships for academic credit if needed.
